

Relationship Executive – Screening Test

For Undergraduate (UG) Candidates | 40 Questions | 40 Marks | Suggested Time: 40–45 Minutes

Candidate Name: _____ Date: _____
College: _____ Contact: _____

Instructions: Select the most appropriate answer for each question. The test evaluates sales, customer calling, lead handling, targets, follow-ups, communication, customer relationship management, conversion and practical situations.

Section A – Sales Fundamentals

1. What is the primary responsibility of a Relationship Executive?

- A. Managing employee attendance
- B. Building customer relationships and supporting business/sales growth
- C. Preparing financial statements
- D. Managing office infrastructure

2. What is a sales lead?

- A. An existing employee
- B. A potential customer who may be interested in a product or service
- C. A competitor
- D. A supplier

3. Why is understanding customer needs important in sales?

- A. It helps recommend a relevant product or service
- B. It eliminates the need for follow-ups
- C. It guarantees every customer will purchase
- D. It reduces the need for communication

4. What is upselling?

- A. Selling a lower-priced product
- B. Encouraging a customer to choose a higher-value product or service
- C. Cancelling an order
- D. Giving a product for free

5. What is cross-selling?

- A. Selling a complementary product or service to an existing customer
- B. Reducing the sales target
- C. Contacting competitors
- D. Rejecting a customer

6. Which of the following is important for successful sales?

- A. Product knowledge
- B. Communication skills
- C. Understanding customer requirements
- D. All of the above

7. What is a sales target?

- A. A customer's complaint
- B. A measurable sales objective to be achieved within a specific period
- C. An employee's attendance requirement
- D. A company's office expense

8. Why is customer trust important in relationship-based sales?

- A. It can support long-term customer relationships
- B. It eliminates competition
- C. It guarantees immediate sales

D. It removes the need for product knowledge

Section B – Calling & Communication

9. What is the main purpose of a sales call?

- A. To speak continuously
- B. To understand the prospect's requirement and create a business opportunity
- C. To force the customer to purchase
- D. To collect personal information

10. Which is the most professional way to start a sales call?

- A. You need to buy our product.
- B. Hello, I'm calling from _____. May I know if this is a convenient time to speak?
- C. Buy now because the offer will end.
- D. Please listen to me without interrupting.

11. What is active listening?

- A. Waiting for your opportunity to speak
- B. Listening carefully and understanding the customer's requirements before responding
- C. Reading a script without listening
- D. Interrupting the customer

12. A customer says, "I'm not interested." What should a Relationship Executive do?

- A. Argue with the customer
- B. Politely understand the reason for the lack of interest and respond appropriately
- C. Immediately disconnect
- D. Call repeatedly without permission

13. A customer asks a question that you do not know the answer to. What should you do?

- A. Make up an answer
- B. Politely acknowledge it and confirm that you will verify the information
- C. Ignore the question
- D. End the conversation

14. Which communication style is most appropriate when speaking with customers?

- A. Aggressive and forceful
- B. Polite, confident and professional
- C. Casual and careless
- D. Argumentative

15. Why are discovery questions useful during a customer call?

- A. They help identify the customer's needs and expectations
- B. They make calls longer
- C. They avoid the need to listen
- D. They guarantee a sale

16. Which of the following is an appropriate closing question?

- A. Why haven't you purchased yet?
- B. Shall we proceed with the next step?
- C. You are going to buy this, correct?
- D. Can I call you every hour?

Section C – Lead Handling & Follow-Ups

17. What is lead generation?

- A. Finding potential customers for a product or service
- B. Preparing employee payroll

C. Managing attendance

D. Preparing invoices

18. Which of the following can generate customer leads?

A. Referrals

B. Social media

C. Website enquiries

D. All of the above

19. What is lead qualification?

A. Determining whether a lead has a relevant need, interest and potential to become a customer

B. Deleting old customer records

C. Preparing sales invoices

D. Assigning employee shifts

20. Why should customer information be updated regularly?

A. To maintain accurate records and support effective follow-ups

B. To increase office paperwork

C. To avoid customer interaction

D. To reduce sales activities

21. Why are follow-ups important in sales?

A. They help maintain customer engagement and move suitable opportunities forward

B. Every customer purchases during the first call

C. Follow-ups are only required for complaints

D. Follow-ups replace product knowledge

22. A customer asks you to call next Monday. What should you do?

A. Forget the request

B. Record the follow-up date and contact the customer as agreed

C. Call several times before Monday

D. Close the lead

23. A customer has not responded to your first call. What is an appropriate approach?

A. Follow up at a reasonable time using an appropriate communication channel

B. Delete the customer record

C. Call continuously

D. Mark the customer as permanently uninterested

24. Which information is most useful when maintaining customer records?

A. Customer contact details

B. Customer requirements and interaction history

C. Follow-up date and status

D. All of the above

Section D – Targets, Performance & Conversion

25. A Relationship Executive has a monthly sales target of ■4,00,000 and has achieved ■2,75,000. How much is remaining?

A. ■1,00,000

B. ■1,25,000

C. ■1,50,000

D. ■1,75,000

26. A Relationship Executive contacts 100 qualified leads and 15 become customers. What is the conversion rate?

A. 10%

B. 15%

C. 20%

D. 25%

27. Which metric indicates how many prospects become customers?

A. Conversion rate

B. Attendance rate

C. Employee turnover

D. Inventory level

28. You are behind your monthly sales target. What should you do first?

A. Give up on the target

B. Review your pipeline, lead quality, follow-ups, conversion rate and sales approach

C. Blame customers

D. Stop making calls

29. Why is maintaining a sales pipeline important?

A. It helps track prospects and their progress through different sales stages

B. It eliminates the need for customer communication

C. It is only useful for accounting

D. It guarantees sales

30. Which activity can help improve sales performance?

A. Consistent follow-ups

B. Better product knowledge

C. Understanding customer objections

D. All of the above

Section E – Customer Relationship Management

31. What is the primary purpose of customer relationship management?

A. To build and maintain effective customer relationships

B. To reduce customer communication

C. To avoid follow-ups

D. To eliminate sales activities

32. A customer complains about a service. What should the Relationship Executive do first?

A. Blame another department

B. Listen carefully and understand the issue

C. Disconnect the call

D. Ignore the complaint

33. What should a Relationship Executive do after resolving a customer complaint?

A. Never contact the customer again

B. Follow up to confirm that the issue has been addressed appropriately

C. Delete the customer record

D. Ask the customer to contact someone else

34. Why is customer feedback useful?

A. It can help identify customer expectations and areas for improvement

B. It is only useful for marketing

C. It eliminates competition

D. It guarantees customer retention

35. Which behaviour helps build a strong customer relationship?

A. Making unrealistic promises

B. Being responsive, honest and consistent

- C. Avoiding difficult questions
- D. Contacting customers only when selling

Section F – Practical Relationship Executive Situations

36. A customer says, "Your competitor is offering a lower price." What should you do?

- A. Immediately criticize the competitor
- B. Understand the customer's priorities and explain the relevant value of your offering
- C. Promise any discount without authorization
- D. End the conversation

37. A customer is interested but says, "I need to discuss this with my manager." What is the most appropriate response?

- A. Pressure the customer to decide immediately
- B. Ask what information they need for the discussion and agree on a suitable follow-up
- C. Mark the lead as lost
- D. Stop contacting the customer

38. You have 40 customers to follow up with and only two hours available. How should you prioritize them?

- A. Call randomly
- B. Prioritize based on urgency, customer interest, potential value and agreed follow-up commitments
- C. Call only the first five customers
- D. Ignore customers who have not responded previously

39. A customer is interested in a product but has an objection about price. What should you do?

- A. Argue that the customer is wrong
- B. Understand the price concern and explain relevant value or available options within company policy
- C. Promise an unauthorized discount
- D. End the call immediately

40. You have made many customer calls but your conversion rate is low. What should you review?

- A. Lead quality, communication approach, customer objections, follow-up process and product knowledge
- B. Only the customer's behaviour
- C. Nothing; continue using exactly the same approach
- D. Only the number of calls made

Answer Key – HR / Recruitment Use

1. B	2. B	3. A	4. B	5. A
6. D	7. B	8. A	9. B	10. B
11. B	12. B	13. B	14. B	15. A
16. B	17. A	18. D	19. A	20. A
21. A	22. B	23. A	24. D	25. B
26. B	27. A	28. B	29. A	30. D
31. A	32. B	33. B	34. A	35. B
36. B	37. B	38. B	39. B	40. A

Suggested HR Screening Criteria

34–40: Strong fundamentals; proceed to the next selection round

28–33: Good potential; proceed to interview/communication round

20–27: Evaluate further through communication and practical interview

Below 20: Additional assessment recommended

Recommended Next Round: Conduct a 5–10 minute mock customer call to assess communication, confidence, active listening, objection handling, follow-up planning and professional closing.